

Bios: Mythic Mandate Online Workshop: Green Alchemy and the Permaculture Revolution

Willi Paul is a Green Business Certified Sustainability Consultant and strategic client relations designer for environmental and greentech start-ups and sustainability non-profits. Mr. Paul is CEO at PlanetShifter.com Magazine and has published over 230 thought leader interviews in alchemy, mythology and sustainability and 1750 posts to-date since launching site on EarthDay 2009. Willi serves as community relations consultant for DailyActs.org a permaculture-driven community education catalyst based in Petaluma, CA.

As co-founder of the openmythsouce.com, Willi's current passion and mission targets how we can re-energize alchemy and write new myths for the Sustainability Age. A robust content and social media network has been established to explore and share ideas: PlanetShifter.com Magazine, openmythsouce.com, openmythsouce - tumblr.

He has published a new myth series of six visions, published research in sound alchemy, and has multiple posts on the role of permaculture in the sustainability age. David and Willi's third eBook in the openmythsouce.com - Activating the New Alchemy and Mythologies for the Sustainability Age series will be out in early December 2010.

Check out Willi's complete PlanetShifter.com Magazine post archive here.

Researcher, writer and artist, David Metcalfe is active in reintegrating a spirit of wisdom and action within the contemporary culture. In partnership with Planetshifter.com  [open myth source ] project. Through conversation and collaboration with scholars, business leaders, philosophers, artists, musicians, and the community at large,  [open myth source ] reactivates myth and storytelling to develop sustainable philosophies for the 21st century. Magazine, David is co-founder of the  [open myth source ].

As an illustrator David's work has been featured in a wide variety of electronic publications, including Planetshifter.com Magazine, The Absurdist Monthly Review, Down and Dirty Word, Richard Stiennon's IT security blog ThreatChaos, and his own electronic effort, The Eyeless Owl. A yearlong digital art project hosted by The Eyeless Owl has been transmuted into a collaborative animation featured at select venues in downtown Chicago during the Spring and Fall of 2010. The Long Now Foundation has also placed one of David's illustrations in their 10,000 year library vault, a project that seeks to build long term thinking into the cultural narrative.

Catherine Walker guides and transforms small to medium-sized businesses to become Green Certified. As a certified permaculture designer, her work has found expression in both New Zealand and France, where her permaculture-inspired edible sanctuary gardens (<http://permaculturesanctuaries.blogspot.com/>) have taken root. Catherine has walked a spiritual path for over three decades, discovering valuable insights to healing, transformation and wisdom, particularly through nature. Ms. Walker founded Worldsanctuaries.org (<http://worldsanctuaries.org/>) in 2005 - a non-profit permaculture-inspired program for creating ecosystem-friendly gardens that also nourish the soul.

Ms. Walker holds a BA in Conservation Management, is a Waldorf-trained educator and Leadership Ecology graduate of the Regenerative Design Institute (<http://www.regenerativedesign.org/>). Catherine and her visionary team are developing a new green business consulting organization called Alchemy of Ecology (<http://alchemyofecology.blogspot.com/>) that bridges the ecological practices of environmental non-profits with the hospitality / eco-tourism sectors to cultivate win-win transformations that build long-term sustainability and economic health. Please enjoy PlanetShifter.com Magazine's interview with Catherine (<http://www.planetshifter.com/node/1558>). More on Catherine is here: (<http://www.odemagazine.com/people/Sanctuarian>).